Abstract

Request from author for retraction

Dear Editor of Edelweiss

Kindly, according to keep the reputation of publishing any article in good condition and acceptable situation, I seek from you to completely remove any sources belong to Edelweiss which published the article have titled (Design and Analysis of Ultrasonic Horns Operating in Multiple Vibration Modes). the article published by author (Ziad Sh. Al Sarraf), since 28 October 2018.

Actually, most of the contents are belongs to my colleague researcher not me, so that was my big mistake and I hope to help me to remove this article from your website. Also, to give me a chance to correct my mistake and keep going in publishing authentic works which are belongs to me.
